There will be a money tree set up in the foyer to help this family offset expenses while Charlotte is in the hospital over the next few months. Please contact Jackie Short with questions.

Cordova Christian Camp - Campus Access

During Cordova Christian Camp, all visitors to the church campus must check in at the office as a first stop. We will have over 200 children and teens at camp, and must maintain tight security over all campus activities and visits for their safety.

Cookies for Cordova Christian Camp

It's that time again! Camp is next week, and we will need a lot of cookies. Please bring your donations of homemade or store-bought cookies by Sunday, June 17. Thank you for helping make camp a sweet time for all our kids!

Neighborhood Block Party!

Come to our first Block Party on June 24th starting at 5 pm with a special Cordova Christian Camp video, followed by bounce houses, air-brushed face painting, food, and fellowship with our camp and neighborhood families. Fun events like this don't happen on their own; we will need lots of help - to assist in the kitchen, keep our bounce house, slide, and obstacle course safe, and crank out snow cones. Please check the sign-up sheet at the Involvement Center table!

Spiritually Single Ministry

Being spiritually single can have many forms. Whether you are not in a relationship, or your significant other does not share your faith, it can sometimes be hard to know where to turn to for support. To the spiritually single, we want you to know that you are not alone! You are invited to join us for coffee at the Starbucks at Sunrise and Douglas in Rancho Cordova on 6/28 at 5 pm. Let us connect with and encourage one another in our walk with Christ. Contact Rachel Kummer - rachel.d.kummer@gmail.com or 916-817-7205 if you have any questions, or if you are interested but cannot attend. We will discuss time and location for future meetings.

Women's Reflect and Connect Survey

The Women's Ministry is currently collecting surveys from ladies 18 years and older at Cordova. The purpose of this survey is to see the overall health of women's fellowship at Cordova, but also to act as a tool for helping us make even more connections! In this survey you can indicate an interest for fellowship opportunities, such as going to coffee or finding an exercise partner, or even volunteer to organize or attend specific future events. Paper copies are available on the Involvement Center table in the foyer. However, the survey may also be taken electronically via <https://tinyurl.com/CordovaRCSurvey2018>.

Celebrate Recovery

CELEBRATE RECOVERY

Time for some spring cleaning? Join us as we learn tools to rid ourselves of life's clutter and baggage that is keeping us from joyous living. We meet every Wednesday night at 6:30 p.m. A meal is available at 5:45 with a $2.00 donation.

1. Why do you think it is often so hard for us to be quick to listen and slow to speak? (James 1:19)

2. How does anger keep us from producing this righteousness that God requires of us? How can our anger affect our witness to others as a Christian? (James 1:20)

What is the difference between human anger and Godly anger? Is it good for us to exhibit Godly anger in certain situations? (James 1:20)

Small Group Material

4. Why does Paul link our words so closely with our faith? What other things can you think of that are of similar importance? (James 1:26)
5. Is James asking us to specifically watch out for orphans and widows, or should we understand this in a broader sense? If we should read it in a broader sense, why does Paul pick these two as examples? (James 1:27)
6. What are practical ways in which you can keep yourself from being polluted by the world? (James 1:27)
7. It is often difficult to see how angry we are becoming until it has gone too far. How can we be sure that our faith is true religion and not perceived religion?

Fasting

Fasting is the practice of denial for a time. Fasting frees ourselves from the unseen shackles of control materials have on us and refocuses our hearts to God and others. Through the practice of intentional denial, a person can rediscover the wonderful power of God's sustaining grace. Fasting should not be something just rushed into, however, but should be practiced with a deep sense of wonder and awe. Below are some tips for having a healthy fasting experience.

- 1) Embrace humility- we fast not for ourselves but to give glory to God. Fasting does not make you more spiritual than someone. God does not value the Christian who fasts over the one who does not. Before your fast begins, make sure to have a pure heart as you enter into the time.
- 2) Plan- fasting takes some planning. Answer questions like: What is the purpose of this fast? When will I fast? How long will I fast? Will I fast from something specific? What do I need to do to prepare myself beforehand for the fast? What will you do instead of eating that day?
- 3) Get an accountability partner- Have someone who can support you in your fast. You should not declare that you are fasting to the whole world, but it is good to include one or two in this discussion for the purpose of accountability.
- 4) Be present- The temptation is to ignore the hunger or desire when it comes when fasting, don't do this. Instead, use those times when it is hard to maintain discipline as a chance to focus on God. Pray. Sing. Read Scripture. Call a friend up and ask about their day.
- 5) Don't Rush Out- Don't watch the clock or calendar for when the fast will end. When the fast ends don't celebrate that you can now eat and then gorge yourself. Instead, have a simple meal and a prayer, "Thank you for sustaining me in this time as you always have before." The fast isn't a punishment; don't treat it like such.

I encourage you to fast regularly. If you would like more information or to talk more about Fasting please talk with me. --Kyle
